finish a witness) with two fifteen-minute breaks and forty-five minutes for lunch, Monday, outside the presence of the jury, the Court shall address those issues at 8:30 a.m. This schedule may be modified at the discretion of the Court.

D. All expert discovery shall be completed no later than May 15, 2017.

III. FURTHER CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

A further case management conference is scheduled for August 3, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom A of this Court. Seven days prior to the conference, the Parties shall submit an updated joint case management conference statement.

IV. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION/SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

The deadline to conduct alternative dispute resolution is August 30, 2016.

V. PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

A. The pretrial conference will be held on June 9, 2017 at 1:30 p.m.

B. At least 28 days before the pretrial conference, lead counsel and/or the parties if pro se shall meet and confer regarding preparation of the joint pretrial conference statement, preparation and exchange of pretrial materials to be filed (including jury instructions, verdict forms and voir dire), and settlement of the action.

C. At least 14 days before the pretrial conference, counsel and/or parties shall serve and file a joint pretrial statement. The pretrial statement shall include the following:

1. A brief description of the substance of claims and defenses which remain to be decided.

2. A detailed statement of all relief sought, itemizing all elements of damages claimed.

3. A statement of all relevant undisputed facts to which the parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.

4. A statement of all relevant disputed facts which remain to be decided.

5. A brief statement of disputed points of law concerning liability and relief.

Legal argument on these points shall be reserved for the trial briefs.

6. A statement of any motions or other matters that must be resolved prior to trial.

7. A statement of whether bifurcation or a separate trial of specific issues is feasible and desired.

8. An estimate of the number of hours needed for the presentation of each party's case.

9. A statement summarizing the status of settlement negotiations and indicating whether further negotiations are likely to be productive.

D. At least 14 days before the pretrial conference, counsel and/or parties shall also:

1. Serve and file trial briefs (not to exceed 10 pages), which shall specify each cause of action and defense remaining to be tried, along with a statement of the applicable legal standard. No opposition shall be filed. The trial briefs should also state which issues, if any, are for the Court to decide, rather than the jury.

2. Serve and file a list of deposition excerpts for witnesses who will not testify in person (specifying the witness and the page and line references to the deposition transcripts) and other discovery responses that will be offered at trial.

3. Serve and file a list of all witnesses to be called at trial, in person or by deposition, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, with a brief statement describing the substance of the testimony to be given.

4. Serve and file a numerical list of exhibits that will be offered as evidence in a party's case in chief in support of a claim or defense, with a brief statement describing the substance and purpose of each exhibit and the name of the sponsoring witness.

E. Motions in Limine. The parties are encouraged to resolve as many trial issues by stipulation as possible. The parties shall meet and confer at least 35 days before the pretrial conference to determine whether any evidentiary issues may be resolved by stipulation. No party may file a motion in limine without first making a good faith effort to resolve the evidentiary issue with opposing counsel.

1. Please limit motions in limine to circumstances that require an advance ruling. No more than five motions per side will be allowed. If a party seeks to file more than five

1 motions in limine, they must file an administrative motion at least 14 days before the motions in
2 limine are due to be served on opposing counsel, demonstrating extraordinarily good cause for 3 allowing the excess motions. The administrative motion should summarize the subject matter of 4 each proposed additional motion in limine.

5 2. The motions in limine shall be served, but not filed, at least 30 days before
6 the pretrial conference. The oppositions shall be served, but not filed, at least 20 days before the 7 pretrial conference. The Court does not permit reply briefs. At least 14 days before the pretrial
8 conference, the parties shall file the motions in limine and submit them to Chambers collated in a 9 binder. In the binder, the motions shall be separated by tabs (e.g., Tab 1: Plaintiff's Motion in 10 Limine No. 1 re; Tab 2: Defendant's Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion in Limine No. 1, and so on).
11 The binder containing all motions in limine should be submitted to the Clerk's office in an
12 envelope clearly marked with the case number and "SK chambers copy."

13 3. Each motion in limine should address a single, separate topic, and contain
14 no more than seven pages of briefing per side. Leave of Court will be required to exceed the page
15 limitations. Motions should be clearly identified as "____'s Motion in Limine No. __ re 16 _____" If the content of an exhibit is necessary to the resolution of a motion in limine, that 17 exhibit must be attached to a declaration in support of that motion.

18 F. Jury Instructions. At least 14 days before the pretrial conference, the parties shall 19 file a joint set of proposed jury instructions on substantive issues arranged in a logical sequence.
20 The parties shall use the Ninth Circuit Model jury instructions where possible. Any language a 21 party proposes to remove from a model instruction must be designated with a ~~striethrough~~ and 22 language proposed to be added to a model instruction must be underlined. If a model instruction
23 includes bracket language or blanks, the parties must provide the Court with the appropriate
24 language or blanks completed.

25 1. The parties should include proposed text for all proposed jury instructions,
26 even for any form preliminary instructions, general instructions or concluding instructions on 27

1 which they agree. If undisputed, an instruction shall be identified as “Stipulated Instruction No.
2 ____ re ____.” Even if stipulated, the instruction shall be supported by citation.

4 2. If, after meeting and conferring in good faith, the parties cannot agree on a 5 proposed jury instruction, each party’s proposed version shall be provided and identified as 6 “Disputed Instruction No. ____ re ____, Offered by ____,” with blanks filled in as 7 appropriate. All proposed versions of the same instruction shall bear the same number. If a party
8 does not have a counter version and simply contends that no such instruction in any version shall 9 be given, then that party should so state (and explain why in the separate memoranda required by 10 paragraph 3) on a separate page in lieu of an alternate version.

11 3. The parties are encouraged to keep disputed instructions, as well as 12 instructions that vary from the Ninth Circuit Model jury instructions, to a minimum. To the extent
13 they are unable to resolve their disputes, the Court requires complete briefing on disputed
14 instructions. Thus, a party supporting an instruction must submit a separate memorandum of law
15 in support of its disputed instructions, organized by instruction number. Counsel shall quote
16 exact, controlling passages from the authorities and provide citations with pin cites. The party
17 opposing a given instruction, or instructions, must include a responsive brief to the supporting 18 party’s memorandum, organized by instruction number. The responsive brief also shall quote
19 exact, controlling passages from the authorities and provide citations with pin cites.

20 G. Verdict Forms. Parties shall file their joint verdict form at least 14 days before the 21 pretrial conference. If, after a good faith effort to meet and confer, the parties cannot agree on a 22 joint form, the parties may submit separate proposed verdict forms. If the verdict form is disputed,
23 each party shall explain, in no more than one page, which its proposed verdict form should be 24 given.

25 H. Voir Dire. Parties shall file their proposed questions for voir dire at least 14 days
26 before the pretrial conference.

27 1. During the voir dire, the Court will elicit the jurors’ basic biographical 28

1 information through its own questioning (e.g., current employment, marital status, past jury
2 service), so those subjects need not be including in the parties' proposed set of questions.

3 2. If, after meeting and conferring, the parties cannot agree on a joint set of 4 voir dire questions, the joint set may be supplemented as necessary by separate requests for good
5 cause only. Please keep these to a minimum.

6 3. At least 14 days before the pretrial conference, the parties shall jointly file a 7 proposed statement of the case to be read to the jury during voir dire. Unless the case is extremely 8 complex, this statement should not exceed one page, double spaced.

10 VI. TRIAL PROCEDURES

11 A. Should a daily transcript and/or realtime reporting be desired, the parties shall make 12 arrangements with Rick Duvall, Court Reporter Supervisor at (415) 522-2079 or 13 Rick_Duvall@cand.uscourts.gov, at least 14 days prior to the trial date.

14 B. During trial, counsel may wish to use the technology available in the Courtroom. If 15 that is the case, the parties shall refer to the Court's Website regarding Courtroom Technology at:
16 <http://cand.uscourts.gov/courtroomtech>. If the parties prefer to use the Court's equipment rather 17 than their own, 28 days before the pretrial conference they should contact the Court's Courtroom
18 Deputy to determine whether an evidence cart is available. The parties may also consult with the 19 Courtroom Deputy regarding courtroom layout issues.

20 If the parties intend to use their own equipment, or intend to use equipment in 21 addition to the equipment available through the Court, it should be shared by all counsel to the 22 maximum extent possible. In addition, the United States Marshal requires a court order to allow 23 equipment into the courthouse. For electronic equipment, parties should be prepared to maintain 24 the equipment or have a technician available at all times. For overhead projectors, the parties shall 25 provide a spare bulb. The parties shall tape extension cords to the carpet for safety. The parties
26 shall be prepared to disassemble and store all equipment in the courtroom at the end of each court 27 day.

1 C. Jurors may take notes. Note pads will be distributed at the beginning of each trial.
2 The note pads will be collected at the end of each day and locked in the jury room. Jurors will be
3 instructed on the use of notes both in the preliminary and final jury instructions. The Court may 4 permit the jury to pose written questions to witnesses.

5 D. At the close of each trial day, all counsel shall exchange a list of witnesses for the 6 next two full court days and the exhibits that will be used during direct examination (other than for 7 impeachment of an adverse witness). Within 24 hours of such notice, all other counsel shall 8 provide any objections to such exhibits and shall provide a list of all exhibits to be used with the 9 same witness on cross-examination (other than for impeachment). The first notice shall be 10 exchanged prior to the first day of trial. All such notice should be provided in writing.

11 E. It is the Court's preference that where the parties identify the same witness, the 12 parties should call that witness once during the trial, unless either party can show that they would 13 be prejudiced by this procedure. When the Court follows this procedure, the Court allows a 14 defendant to reserve the right to move for judgment as a matter of law, and the Court will only 15 consider evidence presented by the plaintiff as part of the plaintiff's case-in-chief when evaluating 16 that motion.

17 F. A witness or exhibit not listed in the joint pretrial order may not be used without 18 good cause. This rule does not apply to true rebuttal witnesses (other than rebuttal experts who 19 must be listed). Defense witnesses are considered case-in-chief witnesses, not "rebuttal"
20 witnesses.

21 G. At trial, direct testimony of experts will be limited to the matters disclosed in their 22 reports. Omitted material may not ordinarily be added on direct examination. Illustrative
23 animations, diagrams, charts and models may be used on direct examination only if they were part 24 of the expert report, with the exception of simple drawings and tabulations that plainly illustrate 25 the content of the report, which can be drawn by the witness at trial or otherwise shown to the 26 jury. If cross-examination fairly opens the door, however, an expert may go beyond the written 27

1 report on cross-examination and/or re-direct examination. By written stipulation, all parties may 2 relax these requirements. The Court will not permit Federal Rule of Evidence 703 to be used to 3 admit otherwise inadmissible evidence through the expert (i.e., through the “back door”). At its 4 discretion, the Court may require the parties’ expert witnesses on a particular subject matter to 5 testify immediately following one another, with appropriate explanatory instructions to the jury.

6 H. Counsel must consult with each other and with the deputy clerk at the end of each
7 trial day and compare notes as to which exhibits are in evidence and any limitations thereon. If 8 there are any differences, counsel should bring them promptly to the Court’s attention.

9 I. In general, in addition to the official record exhibits, the Court requires two copies
10 of the joint set of bench binders that contain copies of the exhibits. Counsel shall provide these 11 binders to the Court on the first day of trial. Each exhibit must be separated with a label divider
12 (an exhibit tag is unnecessary for the bench sets). In large letters, the labels should identify the 13 range of exhibit numbers contained in a binder.

14 J. Before the closing arguments, counsel must confer with the Courtroom Deputy 15 Clerk to make sure the exhibits in evidence are in good order. Before the case goes to the jury,
16 counsel shall prepare an easy-to-read index of admitted exhibits, which should include all exhibits
17 actually in evidence (and no others) stating the exhibit number and a brief, non-argumentative
18 description (e.g., letter from A. B. Case to D. E. Frank, dated August 17, 1999).

19 K. Ordinarily, the Court shall set fixed time limits at the final pretrial conference. All 20 of counsels’ examination time (whether direct, cross, re-direct or re-cross) for all witnesses and 21 side bar conference time (as specified above) must fit within the time limits and may be allocated
22 as counsel wish. The time limits for opening statements and closing arguments shall be 23 considered separately. Counsel must keep track of everyone’s usage. At the end of each day,
24 counsel must confer over the time used and the time remaining for all parties and advise the Court
25 daily. If a party requests a side bar to argue an objection, and the Court overrules that party’s
26 objection, the Court may charge the time spent at side-bar to that party.
